

AURAMAH VALLEY

Himalayan Country Estate

Residents Book

Imperial
Realty & Developments

Dear friends,

A few years ago, most people thought that Auramah Valley was a very ambitious project. That it was impossible to pull off a high quality project of this scale, with the facilities, services and the discerning community that we were promising, that too, in such difficult terrain.

It gives me immense pleasure to inform all of you that not only did we achieve what we set out to do, but Auramah Valley has become the #1 address in the hills of North India.

I would like to thank each one of our residents, who believed us when we had nothing to show. Your belief in us kept us motivated to deliver beyond your expectations.

We are committed to continue giving you a world class residential experience.

Thank you for all your unconditional support. Looking forward to spending a lifetime together.

Yours Sincerely

*Manav Singh
Chairman
Imperial Holding Group*

Ajoy and Natasha Khandheria

Our kids Nikita (16) and Tanya (13) love the hills and we are blessed to be a part of the Auramah Valley family. Our hobbies are hiking, playing golf, gymming, playing bridge and poker.

We spend half our time in the San Francisco Bay Area and half in Gurgaon.

Amarjit and Dimple Singh

Dinesh and Pooja Dhingra

Not quite the quintessential Indian family, the Dhingras of Dubai are an eclectic bunch. Their story, which began with the encounter of the parents, Pooja and Dinesh Dhingra, is one for the books, especially this one. Pooja, an engineer by education, met Dinesh, also an engineer by education, in Chandigarh in 1996. It was then the beginning of a beautiful tale that spanned across the continents. Today, they both have flourishing careers, and a family they love to boast about much more.

Pooja works for IKEA, and without her work, millions of people would pay exorbitant amounts of money for comfortable Swedish home designs. Dinesh works in I.T, and without him, the entire company wouldn't be able to function, because let's be real, it's the 21st century and none of us can survive without our beloved technology.

They even had children! Simran, currently 20 years old, is pursuing a degree in finance at the Pennsylvania State University. She hopes to use it to help renewable energy companies finance their projects and increase the availability of sustainable power globally.

Aryaman, currently 16 years old, is studying for his IB diploma at Dubai American Academy. His long term goals are to excel in IB, and pursue computer science to further the world's technology addiction!

Honorary family members, Simba, our dog, and Trevor, our 29 year old turtle, also are a part of this grand story. And of course our tale would not be complete without Maya, our house help who cares for us all! We hope to meet you one day and share the rest of our story!!

Extremely thankful to Manav for accommodating us in his prestigious project at Auramah Valley.

We are a family of 4 people hailing from the renowned Sabharwal family of Delhi. My wife - Dr. Meenakshi Sabharwal (consultant gynaecologist) and I - Dr. Vivek Sabharwal (consultant surgeon) run the famous Jeewan Nursing Home & Hospital on Pusa Road, New Delhi. We have two children, my son Dr. Arjun Sabharwal who is pursuing his post-graduation in medicine from Leeds university, United Kingdom and my daughter Aarushi Sabharwal, a Counselling Psychologist.

It is an honour and privilege to be associated with the residents of Auramah Valley and we look forward to getting to know you all.
